Detailed description of FIG. 5: This is a screenshot of a trading application window. The window has a title bar with a menu bar containing 'File', 'Edit', 'View', 'Insert', and 'Format'. Below the menu bar is a toolbar with several icons. The main content area includes an 'Account' field with the value 'XXXXX-XXX-XXXX'. Below this are four columns of input fields: 'Transactions' with radio buttons for 'Buy', 'Sell', 'Sell Short', and 'Buy to Cover'; 'Number of Shares' with a text input field; 'Stock Symbol' with a text input field; and 'Price' with radio buttons for 'Market', 'Limit', 'Stop', and 'Stop Limit', each followed by a text input field. There is also a 'Term' field with a dropdown menu and a 'Trading Password' field. At the bottom right are two buttons: 'Preview Order' and 'Clear'. Reference numerals are placed throughout the image to identify specific components: 500 points to the title bar, 502 to the menu bar, 504 to the toolbar, 506 to the account field, 508 to the transactions section, 510 to the number of shares field, 512 to the stock symbol field, 514 to the price section, 516 to the term field, 518 to the trading password field, 520 to the preview order button, and 522 to the clear button.
